2) If most Palestinian Jews were not looking for the coming of the Messiah and if Jesus of Nazareth did not clearly fulfill the Messianic prophesies found in the Dead Sea Scrolls and other early Jewish literature, then why did his earliest followers claim that he had been the Messiah?

2) If most Palestinian Jews were not looking for the coming of the Messiah and if Jesus of Nazareth did not clearly fulfill the Messianic prophecies found in the Dead Sea Scrolls and other early Jewish literature, then why did his earliest followers claim that he had been the Messiah?

Previously, while serving in the remote and impoverished parish of Suchitoto, he worked with Archbishop Oscar Romero. By establishing Christian base communities in the area, he helped peasants and workers organize to improve their lives. Because of mounting pressure from the government, his work became more difficult. After receiving numerous death threats, he was kidnapped by the National Guard. FROM THE CHAPEL COUNCIL

An Invitation: Community worship needs broad participation in planning. Students who would like to share in planning the daily services of worship, special worship events such as the Easter Vigil, or Sunday evening services, or providing resources for the conduct of worship (music, art, dance, liturgical materials) are urged to leave their names at the Chapel Office, along with an indication of their special interest. Committees are currently being organized.

Clarification in response to questions: After careful consideration, last spring the Chapel Council decided to encourage worship leaders three days each week to lead in morning prayer: Scripture, prayer, and praise. Though morning prayer does not require a homily, the option for a very brief homily is clearly offered to worship leaders. The remaining two days are set aside for a celebration of Holy Communion, which includes a homily, and a day for the president's leadership, which also includes a sermon.

Jane Dempsey Douglass, chair, chapel council

Telephone: 921-8312, extension 223.

Whether in ancient Galatia or modern America, the good news of God's liberating act in Jesus Christ speaks with power to the human condition. This class will seek to interpret the Letter to the Galatians in a manner that will illuminate the contemporary significance of the apostle Paul's doctrine of justification by grace through faith.

JAZZ !

Monday, November 30, Miller Chapel, 8:00 p.m.

St. Andrew's Day Presentation: Rufus Harley, acclaimed as the world's first professional jazz bagpipe player, will give one of his unique performances at the Seminary.

A native of Philadelphia, Harley began music on the saxophone at age 13 and added the flute and oboe as well. At 17 he was playing professionally and decided to make music his life's work. In 1963, impressed by the Black Watch Bagpipe Band at the late President Kennedy's funeral service, Harley decided to add the instrument to his repertoire.

In addition to his appearances on television and film, he has performed with the Berlin Jazz Festival and records for Atlantic Records. "Bagpipe Blues" and "Scotch and Soda" are his newest releases.

Appropriate to a celebration of St. Andrew's Day, the day dedicated to the patron saint of Scotland, Harley, complete with kilt, plays music from both the jazz and Scottish folk repertoire.

For many students, internship is a life-changing experience which enhances and further clarifies one's call to ministry. It is a unique opportunity in that interns have time to really become involved in areas of their interest with both resources and supervision. Students have used the internship to explore non-typical forms and locations of ministry.

A number of opportunities will be offered to the Seminary from ministry settings in the United States and abroad. To make you aware of these openings, the Field Education Office will periodically announce these availabilities in the Wineskin. Feel free to review these positions and to schedule an individual time to talk with Hendricks S. Davis. Take the opportunity to explore the program on Wednesday evening.

A COMMITMENT TO STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Week - Monday, November 30 - Friday, December 4
1987-1988 Theme: "Growing As We Give."
Stewardship Week launches a year-long exploration to define the meaning of stewardship to the Seminary's sense of community.

Seeing stewardship as a participation in God's reconciling work. Not meaning compulsive giving, a church budget, or even an ethical response. Instead, stewardship is an opportunity to grow as we give...in constructive service, in critical awareness, in community building. This growth response takes shape in imaginative, bold, and compassionate ventures. A few projects that we hope will nurture this growth are...

-Turning Sugar into Protein
On this campus, we dine exceedingly well. Can we share this abundance by turning sugar into protein? The challenge is tithing your dessert. By the tithing of your dessert and matching grants, we can fund 20 protein and nutrient cooperatives overseas and food distribution centers in the United States.

-Cell Groups
These are communities of individuals who together tithe their time, prayers, and funds toward a particular service project. The Stewardship Committee will be available to help facilitate and finance a cell group's project.

-The Coffee House
The coffee house will serve to draw all parts of the campus together, and will be an effective and informative means by which cell groups may acquire needed funds and share their concerns and envisioned ministry. Every cent of profit will be given to Christian service as cell groups interpret local, national and global needs.

-Book Sale
The Annual Spring Book Sale offers a wide variety of literature at bargain prices while providing essential funding for theological libraries overseas.

-Spring Jeopardy
A Spring Jeopardy competition could engage your favorite faculty and staff contestants and raise additional funds toward services and ministry selected by the stewards.

Stewardship pledge cards will be circulated throughout the Seminary community. Please give consideration to the various ways in which you can make your commitment.

The stewardship offering from the recent Thanksgiving banquet raised more than $1300.00. The proceeds will be divided equally between the Trinity Food Cupboard and the Camden Good Samaritan Center.

Attention Presbyterian M.Div. Students:
The Bible Form and Content Examination does not require an application form this year. Those students who need to take this examination should report to Room 5, Stuart Hall, 10:30 a.m., Friday, February 5, 1988.

FINANCIAL AID - STUDENT LOANS

All students who have borrowed Guaranteed Student Loans must have an Exit Interview with the director of student financial aid before they graduate from their program of studies. The Exit Interview will provide valuable information to each student who has borrowed government student loan funds concerning expected payments and the student's rights and responsibilities for repaying funds.

The Financial Aid Office will be in touch with you to schedule a meeting to discuss these issues and to supply you with a packet of repayment materials.

CPE OPPORTUNITY
